

17th Annual Nonprofit Management Conference
Oakland University
Thursday, November 3rd, 2022

Thank you for your interest in presenting at the Nonprofit Management Conference on November 3, 2022, at Oakland University. We are excited to be back in-person.

Please complete the information below and return it to Tara Tomcsik at the Troy Chamber by September 15, 2022 in order to be considered. Your completion of this form will serve as confirmation of your outline and subject matter. All speakers selected will be notified by September 20th.

Your presentation time will be 45 minutes, which includes time for questions. Below, please give us your company information and attach a short, one-paragraph description of your presentation, as you would like it to read in the program. If you are selected we will also need a bio and headshot for promotional marketing.

Attendees do not register in advance for specific sessions, but rather make their selection that day. It is important that the title and description of your session is interesting and informative to attract attendees to your room. Don't forget to be creative! Fun titles, and good content, will draw attendees to your session!

(Please PRINT CLEARLY the information as you would like it to appear on handouts.)
